Under the Age Discrimination Act, recipients of federal financial assistance may not exclude, deny or limit services to, or otherwise discriminate against, persons on the basis of age. The Age Act does not cover employment discrimination, which is enforced by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

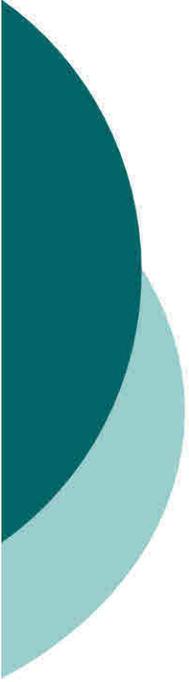

Reporting/Filing a Complaint

- Any person who believes he/she has been a victim of harassment or discrimination should report it through a DYA Civil Rights Officer within a 180 calendar days of the alleged discrimination. For employee discrimination, DYA will follow the Dept. of Administration's procedures.
- Active investigations will result from the report as applicable, and may result in sanctions up to suspension or dismissal, pursuant to Chapter 11 of the DOA Personnel Rules and Regulations, Adverse Action Procedures; and are handled Pursuant to the Equal Employment Opportunity Complaint Procedures.
- If the conduct violates the law, the appropriate authorities will be notified.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURES EXTERNAL ENTITIES

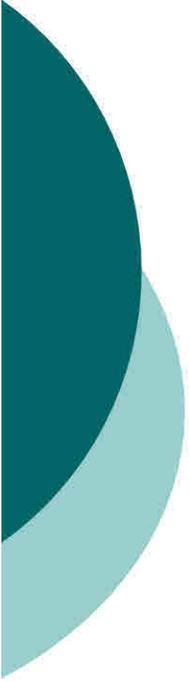

- While the DYA encourages individuals to file any employment or services discrimination complaint with the DYA, the agency's policies and procedures are not intended to impair or limit the rights of anyone to seek a remedy available under state or federal law. As an alternative or in addition to filing a complaint with the DYA, an individual may wish to file a complaint with an external agency for investigation, such as a local or state human rights commission, or an appropriate federal agency. For instance, if a complainant alleges a violation of a federal civil rights law that is enforced by the Office for Civil Rights (OCR), Office of Justice Programs, DOJ, the DYA acknowledgement letter will inform the complainant that s/he may file a complaint directly with the OCR and provide the following contact information:
