Did you know?

On June 15, 2012, Acting Governor Ray Tenorio signed Public Law 31-217, which removed many prohibitions against political activity formerly in place for most government of Guam employees.

Public Law 31-217 also created two groups of employees – a less restricted group and a more restricted group.

1. Who is covered?

In general, employees in the Executive Branch of the government of Guam, including autonomous and semi-autonomous and agencies, or in the Judicial Branch, and whether in the classified or unclassified service are subject to political activity restrictions.

“Employees” includes a person on administrative, annual, or sick leave unless such person has resigned and has received a lump-sum payment for such leave. It includes persons not providing professional services for a specific fee who are hired on a temporary, part-time, emergency or casual basis.

2. Who is not covered?

A few exceptions are made, including the following:

- ~ A person holding elective office;
- ~ A special or Staff Assistant to the Governor;
- ~ A person appointed by the Governor with the consent of the Legislature;

- ~ A person retained from time to time to perform professional or special services for a specific fee; and
- ~ A person working on a casual basis on the days he performs no services.

THINGS TO REMEMBER:

- Although as a less restricted employee you may now actively campaign in partisan elections, you should never do so while wearing a government of Guam uniform or official insignia.
- Never use your official title or position while engaged in political activity.
- Never invite subordinate employees to political events.

Everyone is covered under 4 G.C.A. §5106

Everyone, whether or not an employee of the government of Guam, is prohibited from any form of solicitation for any political purpose, in any government of Guam room or building, whether it is within the Executive, Legislative, or Judicial Branch.

NOTE: Any person who violates this section would be guilty of a misdemeanor.

See 4 G.C.A. §5106

Political activity is governed by 4 G.C.A. § 5101 et seq. These statutes are commonly known as the “Mini-Hatch Act.” You can access the law in full at www.guamcourts.org/CompilerofLaws/index.html.

Compiler of Laws at <http://www.guamcourts.org/CompilerofLaws/index.html>.

3. What if I want to report a violation?

Pursuant to 4 G.C.A. § 5105, the Civil Service Commission is empowered to undertake investigations of reports of violations of the Mini-Hatch Act. You can submit a complaint by making a written report to the Civil Service Commission at its office in Sinajana or by faxing its office at (671) 647-1867.
