Department of Youth Affairs State Advisory Group

State Advisory Groups (SAGs) are established in the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act (JJDP). In each state or U.S. territory, a SAG may be known by an alternative title, such as a "commission" or "council."

Under the JJDP, the Governor or Chief Executive of all states, territories, and the District of Columbia that choose to participate in the Act are required to appoint individuals who are knowledgeable about juvenile justice and delinquency prevention to the SAG. The SAG provides input into their state's use of JJDP funds. It is also responsible for supporting compliance with the core requirements of the JJDP and providing information about the Act's requirements to state and local policymakers.
