

FY 2022 Title II State Advisory Group Membership Roster for GUAM

A State's State Advisory Group (SAG) must include representatives that meet the following membership categories. Using the roster found on the second page of this document, select the category (or categories, if applicable for a particular individual) from the following list that most closely identifies each member's qualification under the JJDP Act SAG membership. Although states must demonstrate to the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention all the statutory SAG membership requirements set forth in this form are met, states are not required to use the form.

- A At least 1 locally elected official representing general-purpose local government
- B Representatives of law enforcement and juvenile justice agencies, including juvenile and family court judges, prosecutors, counsel for children and youth, and probation workers
- C Representatives of public agencies concerned with delinquency prevention or treatment, such as welfare, social services, child and adolescent mental health, education, child and adolescent substance abuse, special education, services for youth with disabilities, recreation, and youth services
- D Representatives of private nonprofit organizations, including persons with a special focus on preserving and strengthening families, parent groups and parent self-help groups, youth development, delinquency prevention and treatment, neglected or dependent children, quality of juvenile justice, education, and social services for children
- E Volunteers who work with delinquent youth or youth at risk of delinquency
- F Representatives of programs that are alternatives to incarceration, including organized recreation activities
- G Persons with special experience and competence in addressing problems related to school violence and vandalism and alternatives to suspension and expulsion
- H Persons, licensed or certified by the applicable state, with expertise and competence in preventing and addressing mental health and substance abuse needs in delinquent youth and youth at risk of delinquency
- I Representatives of victim or witness advocacy groups, including at least one individual with expertise in addressing the challenges of sexual abuse and exploitation and trauma, particularly the needs of youth who experienced disproportionate levels of sexual abuse, exploitation, and trauma before entering the juvenile justice system
- J For a state in which one or more Indian Tribes are located, an Indian tribal representative (if such a representative is available) or other individual with significant expertise in tribal law enforcement and juvenile justice in Indian tribal communities.

Additional State Advisory Group Requirements

Does the SAG consist of not less than 15 members and not more than 33 members appointed by the chief executive officer of the state?

Yes No

Comments:

Are the majority of SAG members (including the chairperson) NOT full-time employees of the federal, state, or local government?

Yes No

Comments:

Are at least one-fifth of the members individuals who were under the age of 28 at the time of initial appointment?

Yes No

Comments:

Are at least three members currently, or have they been, under the jurisdiction of the juvenile justice system? If not feasible and in appropriate circumstances, are members the parent or guardian of someone who has been or is currently under the jurisdiction of the juvenile justice system?

(It is not necessary to identify the specific individuals with this experience on the roster; however, the state must affirm that the SAG meets this requirement.)

Yes No

Comments: